

Martine Pierre-Paul

Martine Pierre-Paul is a First Vice President, Regional Director of Community Lending for Valley Bank in Florida and Alabama.

A banking executive with a career spanning over 20 years, Martine has been helping businesses and entrepreneurs achieve their financial goals in New York, New Jersey and now Florida and Alabama.

Her background includes leadership roles in the Financial Services Industry with Citibank, RBC Bank, PNC Bank and First Citizens Bank.

A graduate of Leadership Boca, Class of 2017, she completed her undergraduate studies at Queens College in New York, and the University of Paris, Nanterre, where she studied Legal Communications and International Relations.

Martine's community involvement is extensive and includes active service to numerous non-profit organizations such as Boca Helping Hands, National Jewish Health, The Caribbean Bar Association, the American Cancer Society, the Salvation Army and the Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce Young Entrepreneur Academy.

Martine has two children and enjoys her life as a dance, cheer, lacrosse, golf and soccer mom. She loves all things related to Etiquette and the Royals and is the Founder of the Modern Etiquette and Leadership Academy.